The Grief & Bereavement Resource Center, Inc., scholarship provides financial help to individuals who have experienced significant loss. It aims to support their educational or professional goals, recognize their resilience, and empower them to honor loved ones and contribute to their communities.

Eligibility Criteria:

Applicants must

- Have lost a close family member or loved one who was their primary caretaker
- Be pursuing post-secondary education (bachelor's degree only), certification, or vocational training.
- Demonstrate financial need.
- Show commitment to personal growth and community impact.

Scholarship Award: The scholarship offers $500.00 for tuition, fees, books, or other educational costs. Awards may differ depending on funding availability and the quantity of recipients.

Application Process: To apply for the Grief & Bereavement Resource Center, Inc. Scholarship, applicants must submit the following:

1. A completed application form.
2. A personal statement (500-1000 words) describing their experience with grief, how it has shaped their aspirations, and how this scholarship will help them achieve their goals.
3. Proof of enrollment or acceptance in an educational or training program.
4. One letter of recommendation from a teacher, counselor, or community leader.

Selection Process: Applications will be reviewed by board members and the CEO of the Grief & Bereavement Resource Center, Inc. The evaluation will be based on the following:

- The depth and authenticity of the personal statement.
- Alignment of the applicant's goals with the scholarship's mission.
- Financial need.
- The potential for the scholarship to make a meaningful impact on the applicant's life.
